Parents/Guardians:

The student has been issued an iPad in support of his/her education in the Bend LaPine Schools. The iPad and its content remain the property of Bend LaPine Schools. iPad settings have been adjusted for appropriate school use. These settings must not be altered, deleted or circumvented in any way. The district has provided digital content and resources for student use that must remain installed on the iPad and be easily accessible at all times. The student and parent/guardian agree to be responsible and take care of the iPad and charging accessories and to return all in the same condition in which it was received.
